

Barry Callebaut Announces World Masters Competition

Chocolate manufacturer Barry Callebaut will hold the U.S. National Competition for the World Chocolate Masters May 19-20, 2007. The event will be hosted by the French Pastry School in Chicago.

The World Chocolate Masters is a prestigious worldwide competition, where chocolatiers, pastry chefs and other chocolate professionals compete in the creation of chocolate works. The winner of the U.S. competition will represent this country in the 2008 World Chocolate Masters event to be held in Europe.

To receive an application for the 2007 U.S. National Competition, send an email request to gourmetusa@barry-callebaut.com or call Marilyn Hagstoz at (800) 836-2626. Learn more about the chocolate competitions at www.worldchocolatemasters.com.